CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Braemar Castle. The original Castle of Braemar, supposed to have been built by Malcolm Canmore, husband of St. Margaret, stood near the bridge over the Clunie; the present Castle, itself four hundred years old, is about a mile from Braemar village, and belongs to the Farquharsons of Invercauld. Here are annually held the celebrated Highland Games, at which H.M. the King and the Royal Family are often present.
